

Ali Althen

I am passionate about improving communication within organizations and communities, bringing people together and enabling groups to make effective plans for the future. Our parish community is vibrant and I want to help it grow and thrive for years to come.

Skills – I have an MBA with a focus on non-profit management and corporate social responsibility.

Current Parish Activities – Lector, Extraordinary Minister of the Eucharist

Years in the Parish – 2

Occupation – Public Relations